THE EMPATHY CHALLENGE

Objective: To help students develop their empathy skills and understand the importance of being able to understand and share the feelings of others.

Materials: Paper, pens, a hat or container

Instructions:

- 4----
 - Ask the students to sit in a circle and explain that they will be participating in an empathy challenge.
 - Ask students to write down a scenario or situation in which someone might need empathy.
 - Collect the scenarios in a hat or container.
 - Ask each student to take a scenario from the hat and read it aloud.
 - Instruct the students to pair up with someone they don't usually interact with and spend five minutes discussing how they would feel and what they would do in that scenario.
 - After the five minutes are up, ask the students to share their partner's thoughts and feelings with the group.
 - Finally, discuss as a group how empathy can be helpful in resolving conflicts and building positive relationships.

Evaluation: After the activity, students can write a blog post or journal entry reflecting on what they learned about empathy and its role in emotional intelligence.
