

Healthy Life

Jane woke up to a beautiful yesterday. After having a nice breakfast, she took a walk outside. Then, she went to the store on the high street for treating herself with her favourites.

Storekeeper: Hello

Jane: Hi

Storekeeper: What would you like to buy?

Jane: Do you have some candies?

Storekeeper: Sorry, we don't sell any candies. They are unhealthy for you.

Jane: Can I buy a cake, please? I love cakes.

Storekeeper: We don't sell cakes. They are also unhealthy. What about a nice juicy apple?

Jane: Apple? I don't like eating an apple.

Storekeeper: Would you like some orange juice?

Jane: Orange juice? I never drink orange juice.

Storekeeper: You shouldn't eat unhealthy food. I think you should go to the doctor and check your health. If you eat unhealthy food, you'll get sick.

Jane: Do you have a bar of chocolate?

Storekeeper: Yes, we do.

Jane: Great! I'm very happy now. Bye.

Storekeeper: Bye. You should see a doctor soon.
