

Personal Passive

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first.

Eg. Teachers say that third graders work so hard.

Third graders..... are said to work.....so hard.

1. I assumed that he had known the answer.

He was assumed .....the answer.

2. He says that the woman in a trench coat is from the UK.

The woman in a trench coat is said ..... from the UK.

3. I expect that the weather will be better tomorrow.

The weather is expected ..... better tomorrow.

4. Sarah thinks that the solution wasn't a good idea.

The solution is thought.....a good idea.

5. I think that my teacher gave us low grades.

Our teacher is thought ..... low grades.

6. Adam says that she's writing the report.

She is said ..... the report.

7. They claim that he has stolen the keys.

He is claimed..... the keys.

8. The workers say that the secretary was going out at the time of the accident.

The secretary is said ..... at the time of the accident.

9. Jack understands that the manager hates lengthy reports.

The manager is understood ..... lengthy reports.

10. Tim says the situation got worse yesterday.

The situation is said..... worse yesterday.

11. He asserts that the meeting is held every day.

The meeting is asserted..... every day.

12. Nobody believed he had committed suicide.

He wasn't believed.....suicide.

13. I assumed that he didn't know the answer.

He was assumed .....the answer.

14. The scientists estimated that the molecules had been developing there for years.

The molecules were estimated ..... there for years.

Answer Key

Personal Passive

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first.

Eg. Teachers say that third graders work so hard.

Third graders..... are said to work.....so hard.

1. I assumed that he had known the answer.

He was assumed .....the answer.

2. He says that the woman in a trench coat is from the UK.

The woman in a trench coat is said..... from the UK.

3. I expect that the weather will be better tomorrow.

The weather is expected ..... better tomorrow.

4. Sarah thinks that the solution wasn't a good idea.

The solution is thought.....a good idea.

5. I think that my teacher gave us low grades.

Our teacher is thought ..... low grades.

6. Adam says that she's writing the report.

She is said ..... the report.

7. They claim that he has stolen the keys.

He is claimed..... the keys.

8. The workers say that the secretary was going out at the time of the accident.

The secretary is said ..... at the time of the accident.

9. Jack understands that the manager hates lengthy reports.

The manager is understood ..... lengthy reports.

10. Tim says the situation got worse yesterday.

The situation is said..... worse yesterday.

11. He asserts that the meeting is held every day.

The meeting is asserted..... every day.

12. Nobody believed he had committed suicide.

He wasn't believed.....suicide.

13. I assumed that he didn't know the answer.

He was assumed .....the answer.

14. The scientists estimated that the molecules had been developing there for years.

The molecules were estimated ..... there for years.

Personal Passive

C

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first.

Eg. Teachers say that third graders work so hard.

Third graders..... are said to work.....so hard.

1. I assumed that he had known the answer.
He was assumed .....the answer.
2. He says that the woman in a trench coat is from the UK.
The woman in a trench coat is said .....
from the UK.
3. I expect that the weather will be better tomorrow.
The weather is expected .....
better tomorrow.
4. Sarah thinks that the solution wasn't a good idea.
The solution is thought.....a good idea.
5. I think that my teacher gave us low grades.
Our teacher is thought ..... low grades.
6. Adam says that she's writing the report.
She is said ..... the report.
7. They claim that he has stolen the keys.
He is claimed..... the keys.

Personal Passive

S

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first.

Eg. Teachers say that third graders work so hard.

Third graders..... are said to work.....so hard.

1. The workers say that the secretary was going out at the time of the accident.
The secretary is said ..... at the time of the accident.
2. Jack understands that the manager hates lengthy reports.
The manager is understood ..... lengthy reports.
3. Tim says the situation got worse yesterday.
The situation is said..... worse yesterday.
4. He asserts that the meeting is held every day.
The meeting is asserted..... every day.
5. Nobody believed he had committed suicide.
He wasn't believed.....suicide.
6. I assumed that he didn't know the answer.
He was assumed .....the answer.
7. The scientists estimated that the molecules had been developing there for years.
The molecules were estimated .....
there for years.

Personal Passive

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first.

Eg. Teachers say that third graders work so hard.

Third graders..... are said to work.....so hard.

1. I assumed that he had known the answer.
He was assumed ....to have known....the answer.
2. He says that the woman in a trench coat is from the UK.
The woman in a trench coat is said .....to be..... from the UK.
3. I expect that the weather will be better tomorrow.
The weather is expected ...to be... better tomorrow.
4. Sarah thinks that the solution wasn't a good idea.
The solution is thought..... not to have been .....a good idea.
5. I think that my teacher gave us low grades.
Our teacher is thought ....to have given (us).... low grades.
6. Adam says that she's writing the report.
She is said ....to be writing..... the report.
7. They claim that he has stolen the keys.
He is claimed..... to have stolen..... the keys.
8. The workers say that the secretary was going out at the time of the accident.
The secretary is said .....to have been going out..... at the time of the accident.
9. Jack understands that the manager hates lengthy reports.
The manager is understood .....to hate..... lengthy reports.
10. Tim says the situation got worse yesterday.
The situation is said..... to have gotten..... worse yesterday.
11. He asserts that the meeting is held every day.
The meeting is asserted.... to be held.... every day.
12. Nobody believed he had committed suicide.
He wasn't believed..... to have committed.....suicide.
13. I assumed that he didn't know the answer.
He was assumed ....not to have known....the answer.
14. The scientists estimated that the molecules had been developing there for years.
The molecules were estimated ....to have been developing..... there for years.

Worksheet C

1. to have known 2. to be 3. to be 4. not to have been 5. to have given (us) 6. to be writing 7. to have stolen

Worksheet S

1. to have been going out 2. to hate 3. to have gotten 4. to be held 5. to have committed 6. not to have known 7. to have been developing