

Relative Clauses 1

A. Match the relative pronouns to the words.

Relative Pronouns	Used for...
which	a. A person
whose	b. A thing / An object
when	c. A place where	d. A time
who/whom	e. A possession

B. Mark the extra words in following sentences.

E.g. I saw the firefighter who ~~he~~ was extinguishing the fire in the backyard.

- There are rumours about a coming hurricane which most people have never experienced it before.
- During the flood, he stayed in the shelter where we put our bicycles there.
- Tom called the emergency service immediately which it didn't reply for more than five minutes.
- I escaped from the fire with the help of this man whom the major congratulated him in public.
- The volcanic eruption on the day when my first son was born on it.
- The woman whose her children were lost in flood moved from the town.

Relative Clauses 1

A. Match the relative pronouns to the words.

Relative Pronouns		Used for...
which	b	a. A person whose	e	b. A thing / An object
when	d	c. A place where	c	d. A time who/whom	a	e. A possession

B. Mark the extra words in following sentences.

E.g. I saw the firefighter who ~~he~~ was extinguishing the fire in the backyard.

- There are rumours about a coming hurricane which most people have never experienced it before.
- During the flood, he stayed in the shelter where we put our bicycles there.
- Tom called the emergency service immediately which it didn't reply for more than five minutes.
- I escaped from the fire with the help of this man whom the major congratulated him in public.
- The volcanic eruption on the day when my first son was born on-it.
- The woman whose her children were lost in flood moved from the town.