

Will or Going to?

Choose the correct answer.

1. Will you / Are you going to marry me?
2. Robert: Oh, It's raining outside!
Bob: Don't worry. I 'll / 'm going to lend you, my umbrella.
3. Father: Where have you been? It's half past one!
Son: OK dad, I won't / 'm not going to return home late again.
4. I 'll / 'm going to have a nice holiday this summer. That's only what I have in my mind for this summer.
5. Al: Jane won't / isn't going to play Minecraft with me. She has other plans.
Micheal: OK, I 'll / 'm going to play with you then. I don't have any plans.
6. Jim : Do you need help with your homework?
Mike: Yes, indeed.
Jim: I 'll / 'm going to help you then.
7. I 'll / 'm going to be an architect in the future.
8. Sarah will / is going to take dance classes. Dancing is a passion for her.
9. Tim: Hey! That bag looks very heavy.
Jane: Yes, indeed. Will you / Are you going to come here and help me?
10. My father's worked a lot this year. He 'll / 's going to have a long sunny holiday and do nothing this summer. This is his only intention for the summer.

