

Conditionals

Choose the correct option.

- 1. I can't let you go there. If you the last train, where ?

 - a) miss / will you stay
 - b) missed/would you stay
 - c) miss/do you stay
- 2. If you five and six, you eleven.

 - a) added / will get
 - b) added/ would get
 - c) add/get
- 3. Samantha: If I in Italy, I pizza every day.
Sue: Well, you'd be very fat, then.

 - a) am/will eat
 - b) were/ 'd eat
 - c) am/eat
- 4. If your blood pressure ... high, salt as little as possible.

 - a) is / will eat
 - b) will be/eat
 - c) is/eat
- 5. It's the rush hour in traffic, now. If the traffic really bad, you the tram to go home.

 - a) is/can take
 - b) will be/can take
 - c) was/could take
- 6. You ... less if you to lose weight.

 - a) will eat/wanted
 - b) should eat/want
 - c) eat/want
- 7. I don't think Mike will agree with this. If he ..., we.....the project immediately.

 - a) agrees/will start
 - b) agreed/'d start
 - c) agree/start
- 8. There are lots of possibilities to do in London. If I in London, I.....Buckingham palace first.

 - a) am/will visit
 - b) am/visit
 - c) were/'d visit
- 9. If I ... you, I....an ambulance. You can't go as fast as an ambulance to the hospital.

 - a) was/will call
 - b) were/'d call
 - c) am/will call
- 10. If you.....your meal, youout. I'll check it.

 - a) 've finished/ go
 - b) 've finished/may go
 - c) finished/'d go

Answer Key

Conditionals

Choose the correct option.

1. I can't let you go there. If you the last train, where ?
 a) miss / will you stay
 b) missed/would you stay
 c) miss/do you stay
2. If you five and six, you eleven.
 a) added / will get
 b) added/ would get
 c) add/get
3. Samantha: If I in Italy, I pizza every day.
Sue: Well, you'd be very fat, then.
 a) am/will eat
 b) were/ 'd eat
 c) am/eat
4. If your blood pressure ... high, salt as little as possible.
 a) is / will eat
 b) will be/eat
 c) is/eat
5. It's the rush hour in traffic, now. If the traffic really bad, you the tram to go home.
 a) is/can take
 b) will be/can take
 c) was/could take
6. You ... less if you to lose weight.
 a) will eat/wanted
 b) should eat/want
 c) eat/want
7. I don't think Mike will agree with this. If he
 ..., we.....the project immediately.
 a) agrees/will start
 b) agreed/'d start
 c) agree/start
8. There are lots of possibilities to do in London. If I in London, I.....Buckingham palace first.
 a) am/will visit
 b) am/visit
 c) were/'d visit
9. If I ... you, I....an ambulance. You can't go as fast as an ambulance to the hospital.
 a) was/will call
 b) were/'d call
 c) am/will call
10. If you.....your meal, youout. I'll check it.
 a) 've finished/ go
 b) 've finished/may go
 c) finished/'d go

Conditionals

Choose the correct option.

No	Question	Correct Answer	Feedback
1	I can't let you go there. If youthe last train, where? a) Miss / will you stay b) Missed/would you stay c) Miss/do you stay	a. miss / will you stay	This is a first conditional type clause. We are talking about a possible future condition and its result. It's likely to happen.
2	If you five and six, you eleven. a) added / will get b) added/ would get c) add/get	c. add/get	This is a zero conditional sentence. We are talking about a situation which is always true.
3	Samantha: If I in Italy, I pizza every day. Sue: Well, you'd be very fat, then. a) am/will eat b) were/'d eat c) am/eat	b. were/'d eat	This is a second conditional sentence. Samantha imagines that she is in Italy. Sue also comments on her imagination by using second conditional result clause.
4	If your blood pressure ... high, salt as little as possible. a) is / will eat b) will be/eat c) is/eat	c. is/eat	This is a first conditional type. We can use imperative form in the result clause.
5	It's the rush hour in traffic, now. If the traffic really bad, you the tram to go home. a) is/can take b) will be/can take c) was/could take	a. is/can take	This is a first conditional type. We understand from the first sentence that it is possible to happen. We can use "can" modal verb in the result clause.
6	You less if you to lose weight. a) will eat/wanted b) Should eat/want c) Eat/want	b. should eat/want	This is a first conditional type. We can use "should" modal verb in the result clause to give advice.
7	I don't think Mike will agree with this. If he, we.....the project immediately. a) agrees/will start b) agreed/'d start c) agree/start	b. agreed/'d start	This is a second conditional sentence. The speaker sees that it's unlikely Mike to agree. So he's imagining the situation when Mike agrees.
8	There are lots of possibilities to do in London. If I in London, I.....Buckingham palace first. a) am/will visit b) am/visit c) were/'d visit	c. were/'d visit	This is a second conditional sentence. The speaker imagines this situation. The speaker cannot say this sentence when he is in London. So , he isn't in London, he is imagining that he is in London.
9	If I ... you, I....an ambulance. You can't go as fast as an ambulance to the hospital. a) was/will call b) were/'d call c) am/will call	b. were/'d call	This is a second conditional sentence. The speaker gives advice by using the second conditional. We can also use were instead was in second conditionals.
10	If you.....your meal, youout. I'll check it. a) 've finished/ go b) 've finished/may go c) finished/'d go	b. 've finished/may go	This is a first conditional type. The speaker is giving permission using may in the result clause. The speaker sees it's possible to happen.