

Worksheet A

Circle the correct option in each case.

1. We have got some/any rice in the cellar.
2. There are much/some jars of coffee here.
3. Are there some/any pieces of cake left?
4. Is there any/some water in your bottle?
5. Do you want any/some more cake?
6. There isn't much/any ice-cream in the fridge.

Worksheet B

Fill in the blanks with some, any or much.

1. Please, give me ...some..... water. I'm really thirsty.
2. There aren't ...any.....bags of table salt left.
3. Would you like to have ...some..... sugar in your tea?
4. Is there ...any...fruit in the cellar?
5. How ...much... mineral water do you have?
6. There isn't ...any/much.....salt in the meal.

Note: In the sixth exercises of ws A&B, accept both 'much&any'. State that 'much' expresses there is not a lot of something, while 'any' expresses there is none.
